Four Seasons

Scottsdale, AZ

May 4-8, 2016

Greetings from the President

Dear Members of the SSOMS Family,

The 67th Annual Meeting of the Southeastern Society of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons is fast approaching, and on behalf of the Officers and the Executive Board, Beth and I wish to extend to you a warm welcome to The Four Seasons Resort in Scottsdale, AZ.

Nestled into the foothills of Pinnacle Peak – amid towering, multi-armed saguaro cacti – the adobe casitas of Four Seasons Resort embody the desert mountain's magic through thoughtful design and the unique talent of regional artists and craftsmen.

Eric Geist, DDS

The SSOMS takes great pride in honoring those who have made outstanding contributions to our specialty and to our Society. At this meeting, we will honor Dr. Jack Kent with our Lifetime Achievement Award. We have all benefitted from Jack's tireless devotion to organized Dentistry, Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery education, and Clinical as well as Basic Science research. Dr. Ghali Ghali will receive our Distinguished Educator Award for his outstanding career of resident and fellowship training at LSU Shreveport. The Frank DiPlacido Humanitarian Award will be given to Dr. David Frost for his leadership with Health Volunteer Overseas (HVO) and international health care in both delivery development and education. We can all take pride in having the opportunity to be associated with these truly dedicated and enthusiastic members of our Society.

Our cutting edge scientific program, under the direction of Dr. Michael Block, will focus on state of art evaluation and management of the dental implant patient, and will include Dr. Patrick Louis, Dr. Gary Jones, Dr. Richard Akin and Dr. Robert Emery.

The Four Season Scottsdale, associated properties and surrounding areas have a wide variety of fun and exciting activities to occupy your "spare" time. In addition to lounging at the pool, strolling through the shops at the resort, or taking advantage of the world class spa, Rick and Linda Kinsey, our local arrangements couple, have put together a variety of on and off-site activities to keep us more than busy during our stay including jeep tours, river rafting and shopping at Old Town Scottsdale. Of course our golf and tennis tournaments will round out the activities. Linda has also planned a breakfast event for spouses, significant others, traveling companions, friends and family that should not be missed.

You won't want to miss this years President's event which will feature. You won't want to attend this year's President's Banquet which will feature Rock Action Artist, Randall Heddon's amazing presentation.

In closing, Beth and I are looking forward to seeing our many friends and colleagues at this year's SSOMS meeting. We also extend a special Thank you to Hank, Leslie, Melissa, the Kinseys and all of you that have worked so hard to make ours the preeminent regional society.

Best regards, Eric and Beth

Honorees

John (Jack) N. Kent, BA, DDS, FACD, FICD Honored with Lifetime Achievement Award

Dr. John N. Kent

Full-time education and research has occupied the career of Dr. John N. Kent, a 1963 graduate of University of Nebraska School of Dentistry and 1969 graduate of the University of Texas Medical Center in Houston Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (OMS) residency training program. He subsequently served as a full-time OMS faculty member at the University of Texas in Houston (1969-72), University of Iowa (1972-3), and as Head of OMS at LSU Health Sciences Center School of Dentistry and Chief of OMS at Charity Hospital in New Orleans 1973-2002 and 2003-2008. Simultaneously he also served as Head of OMS, Division of Surgery, at LSU School of Medicine in Shreveport, 1978-2003.

Dr. Kent was appointed a Boyd Professor at the LSU OMS department in 1983, one of 7 Boyd Professors in the history of the LSU Medical Center. He has served as President-Elect of the medical staff at the University Hospital in New Orleans, and President of the Louisiana Society and the Southeastern Society of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons. In 1988 the LSU OMS department received the LSU Medical Center's first one million dollar chair, the James R. Peltier Endowed Chair. Dr. Kent occupied that chair as its first eminent scholar from 1988 to 2012. Dr. Kent's teaching and research has rendered him an authority in orthognathic surgery, facial deformities and reconstructive surgery, cosmetic surgery, dental and facial implants, facial bone grafting and biomaterials with authorship in 15 textbooks, over 250 journals, and abstract publications. He is the coauthor of the first textbook on orthognathic surgery and facial deformities in the United States.

Since 1974 Dr. Kent has directed over 60 OMS continuing education courses on behalf of the LSU department of OMS, both the Louisiana and the Southeastern Society of OMS, and the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons. He has been the investigator and author of 40 significant research reports and has received the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons Annual Research Recognition Award. Dr. Kent was the Principle Investigator and Program Director for an NIH Grant from 1987-1995 which provided PhD training for 9 Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons, the greatest number ever from a single institution in his specialty. He is the recipient of the coveted Geis Foundation Award, the Simon P. Hullihen Award, the Louisiana Dental Association's Distinguished Service Award, The American College of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon's Harry Archer Award, The 2014 AAOMS Presidential Achievement Award, and is a Fulbright Scholar.

Dr. Kent has served on the editorial board of several surgical, medical and dental journals including the Journal of Oral Maxillofacial Surgery where he was the Surgery section editor for several years. He is a Fellow of the American College of Dentists and International College of Dentists. He is a Diplomate of his specialties American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (ABOMS). He served on the ABOMS Advisory and Examining Committee for 6 years, the Board of Directors for 7 years, and was President of ABOMS 1987-88. Dr. Kent is Boyd Professor and LSU OMS Department Head, 1973-2002, 2003-2008, 2012 and Professor Emeritus, 2015 LSUSD and LSU Health Sciences Center

Ghali Ghali, DDS, MD, FACC Honored with Distinguished Educator's Award

Dr. Ghali has lived and practiced in Shreveport for the past 20 years. He received his dental degree from Baylor College of Dentistry, his oral and maxillofacial from Parkland Memorial Medical Center and his medical degree from Louisiana State University School of Medicine and his head and neck surgery at Emanuel Hospital in Portland, OR. Dr. Ghali's practice spans from primary cleft repair to cosmetic surgery to head and neck cancer. His professional interest lies in the treatment of pediatric craniofacial deformities including craniosynostosis, cleft lip and palate, and dentofacial deformities. However, his surgical and teaching interests also include dentoalveolar surgery, dental implants, cosmetic surgery, head and neck oncology, and trauma.

Dr. Ghali is a Professor and Chairman at the University and is very active in resident, fellow, and student education. He also has appointments to countless hospital committees helping to keep LSU Health Shreveport at the forefront of medical care in Louisiana. He continues to serve on national and international organizations for the AAOMS, ABOMS, and IAOMS. Dr. Ghali's association with these organizations has helped shape the profession of oral and maxillofacial surgery as well as provided international recognition for the LSU Shreveport residency and fellowship programs.

Dr. Ghali has had numerous research interests including clinical and basic science research. He has published in numerous peer-reviewed journals, written many book chapters and has edited textbooks that are vital to the knowledge base of many in the specialty.

David Frost, DDS, MS Honored with Frank DiPlacido Humanitarian Award

Dr. David Frost

Dr. David Frost is originally from San Antonio, Texas. A Distinguished Military Graduate from Texas A&M University, he was commissioned as a regular officer in the USAF in 1971. He completed dental school at Baylor in Dallas and a GPR at Chanute AFB, Illinois. He was a Morehead Fellow in Dentistry (Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Residency) at UNC Chapel Hill (1977 - 1980) and completed fellowship training at Canniesburn Hospital Scotland and UNC in 1981. David completed his active military career with assignments to Keesler and Wilford Hall Medical Centers before entering private practice in Chapel Hill in 1986.

In 1987 he had his first international volunteer experience leading a team of surgeons on a 6 week mission to Kathmandu, Nepal. This experience, with Health Volunteers Overseas (HVO), led him to more involvement with international health care both in delivery, development and education. David has been on service and teaching missions to multiple countries including India, Nepal, Viet Nam, Chile, Peru and Cuba. He served HVO as a volunteer at multiple sites, site chair for Lima, Peru (2002-2006), and chair of the Oral and Maxillofacial surgery steering committee (1993-2002). Dr. Frost served as Chairperson of the multi-specialty medical/surgical/dental Board of Directors of HVO from 2003 to 2009 and as Chair Emeritus from 2010 to 2013. David received the "Golden Apple" award from HVO in 2014 for his mentoring of faculty, students, clinicians and fellow volunteers, and for clinical training, leadership and extraordinary contribution to the sustainability and effectiveness of HVO. He contributes to international volunteer efforts with the ADA on the Committee on International Programs and Development as a member (2011 to 2104) and Chair (2012-2014) and International Development Subcommittee (ADA and ADAF), 2010-present and as chair (2011-2014).

Dr. Frost has taught at ADA meetings and numerous state, regional and international meetings for the ADA, ICD, and others on topics of Ethics and International Volunteering. David has served OMS in many other ways including being on the Editorial Board of the British Journal of OMS (1993-2000) Editorial Board of JOMS (2011 to present) and as National Civilian Consultant to the Surgeon General of the Air Force for OMS (2002-2012). David served as president of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (2002) and our Southeastern Society of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons (2013); Chair of the Board of directors of the Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Foundation (2009,2010). Other awards include the AAOMS Presidential Achievement Award (2008); North Carolina Dental Society Meritorious Achievement Award (2013) JOMS Top Peer reviewer JOMS (2014) and the OMSF Torch Award (2015).

General Information

OVERVIEW

Join us at the 67th SSOMS meeting to be held at the beautiful Four Seasons Resort in Scottsdale, AZ. According to Executive Director Hank Holderfield, "This is one of the most unique properties I have ever seen. It captures the beauty of the desert with its unusual Southwestern ambience in a setting that's absolutely breathtaking. The spacious pool area is perfect for the "mini-gatherings" that make SSOMS special. The large, beautifully decorated casitas are all the same, only varying with the view offered, mountains or desert. There is a world class spa and restaurant (Talavera) on property and a free standing casual theme restaurant/saloon (Proof) that I know will be packed throughout the conference. And don't miss the short hike from the resort to the summit of Pinnacle Peak for a 360 degree view of the entire valley!"

Hotel Accommodations: For your convenience we have arranged a block of rooms at the Hotel. Reserve your room today by calling 888.207.9696 and asking for the SE Society of Oral Surgeons block. The room block will fill quickly so don't delay. Casita Guestrooms are $365.00 per night. The block expires on April 1, 2016 or while rooms last. Parking: Overnight self parking is complimentary. Overnight valet parking charges are taxable at $35.00 per car, per night.
